

Person Centered Thinking Training – Registration Available for Philadelphia and Harrisburg Sessions ODP Announcement 19-046

AUDIENCE:

People with disabilities and family members are encouraged and invited to attend. Other stakeholders (Supports Coordinators, SC Supervisors, Provider Staff, Administrative Entity Staff and Organizational Leadership) are also welcome. Priority will be given to people with disabilities and family members.

PURPOSE:

To announce the availability of Person Centered Thinking training in Philadelphia and Harrisburg, PA, and to provide registration information.

DISCUSSION:

Person Centered Thinking is a core concept at the foundation of the services and supports provided to people with intellectual disabilities and autism in Pennsylvania. People with disabilities, self-advocates, families, and other stakeholders are invited to come and learn about Person Centered Thinking and how it can be used to enhance the quality of life of the people we support.

This is a professional development opportunity. Training begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 4:00 p.m. You must attend both days in order to complete the training and receive a certificate of attendance.

Training Description: This interactive two-day training serves as a foundation for everyone involved in supporting people with significant disabilities. During this training, participants will have the opportunity to develop their skills by completing a series of guided exercises. Participants will practice utilizing person-centered thinking resources and techniques. Information gathered using these skills can help teams develop meaningful Individual Support Plans that help people with disabilities achieve an Everyday Life.
